TITLE THE PASS

GENRE	PICTURE FICTION
AGE RANGE	LOWER PRIMARY
IMPRINT	CAPSTONE PUBLISHING
ARRP	$29.99
FORMAT	HARDBACK, 32 PAGES, 254x203mm

- a celebration of friendship
- explores the concepts of kindness, resilience and dealing with change

Sam and Milo are best friends, on and off the basketball court. But then Milo moves away. He leaves Sam with a special gift—a book of his very own. Sam treasures the book and loses himself in the story, which helps take his mind off missing his friend and a big change coming in his family. But when the beloved book goes missing, Sam begins to understand that the real gift Milo gave him is one that can be given and received again and again. The Pass by Sara Laux Akin is a tender story of sports, reading, and friendship that eases the difficulties of loss and celebrates the empowerment and connection a good book can give.

He never hogged the ball.

He shared his book.

He was a good friend.

Seventeen-year-old Lucy “Lucky” Graves is devoted to her championship rugby team, but her dreams of a scholarship are destroyed when she breaks her ankle during an important game. If it doesn’t heal properly, Lucy could be benched for the rest of the year. Goodbye pro career, goodbye college, goodbye future. Without rugby, who is she? Now her anxiety and OCD are getting worse, and a past trauma has resurfaced to haunt her. Lucy needs to stop running from her past to discover what it really means to be a team player.

- this short novel is a high-interest, low-reading level book for teen readers who are building reading skills, want a quick read or say they don’t like to read! The epub edition of this title is fully accessible.
