SERIES	DEMOCRACY AND THE AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT
GENRE	CIVICS
AGE RANGE	UPPER PRIMARY TO LOWER SECONDARY
IMPRINT	REDBACK PUBLISHING
ARRP	$19.99
FORMAT	PAPERBACK, 32 PAGES, 270x217mm

Taking a fresh new approach to the subject of how Australian society is structured and governed, this series explains some of the key roles in Australian civic life, from that of ordinary citizens to those of Members of Parliament, the Prime Minister and Governor-General. The titles explain the rights, responsibilities and privileges of individuals in each social position, and the relationships that exist between the Prime Minister, the Governor-General, Members of Parliament and private citizens. An excellent resource for civic studies, the series provides a comprehensive introduction to the law-making process, and insight into how the government and wider Australian society function.

Australians mark Clean Up Australia Day on the first Sunday of March each year. On this special day, community groups and charitable organisations arrange events and activities to help clear litter from parks, rivers, beaches and neighbourhoods. Thousands of volunteers help to clean up and to learn about recycling. Australians celebrate or commemorate a number of special days throughout the year. These special days give us the chance to reflect on the past, appreciate our lives, and look to the future together.

New to Daintree Books!

Ford Street Publishing are a successful small independent Australian publisher of books for children and young adults.

They have a strong presence in both schools and bookshops around Australia through New South Books and Alliance.

Their titles explore themes of contemporary relevance, including childhood grief, ageing, interfaith issues, war and bullying.

These themes are given a fresh and multi-layered treatment that is thought-provoking and entertaining.

Successes include winning Gold INKY and The Family Therapist awards, short-listings in the NSW and Victorian Premiers and the Northern Territory awards, along with many in the Psychologists, Chronos and Aurealis awards.
