We were founded in 2010 by Ireland’s first ever Laureate na nÓg (children’s laureate), Siobhán Parkinson. We remain proudly independent and committed to our founding ideals of publishing high-quality writing and illustration for young readers and having an outward-looking, international mindset. Our books have been translated into many languages and published around the world.

GENRE	FICTION - FANTASY & ADVENTURE
AGE RANGE	MIDDLE TO UPPER PRIMARY
PUBLISHER	LITTLE ISLAND BOOKS
ARRP	$16.99
FORMAT	PAPERBACK, 128 PAGES, 203x133mm

Bumpfizzle is an alien, sent to Earth from Planet Plonk on a research mission. Or is he really just a ten-year-old boy who is feeling a bit disgruntled at all the attention his parents are lavishing on The Baby? It is up to readers to make up their own minds. Either way, Bumpfizzle’s confusion at Earthling behaviours, as reported in his diary and his frequent reports back to Plonk, are hilarious, and his adventures are ridiculous, from eating the cat’s food (it makes him throw up, always good for attention) to biting his teacher (to check if humans would make a good source of food for Plonkers) and attempting to sacrifice a goat (he soon discovers what goats’ horns are for).

- relatable characters
- wildly twisting plot
- adrenaline-fueled climax

- author Patricia Forde has just ben awarded the seventh Laureate na nÓg (Ireland’s Children’s Literature Laureate).

Sweet Cherry Publishing was founded in 2011 by Abdul Thadha, who grew up in an area of Leicester where children rarely spoke English outside of school and there was a clear divide of wealth, particularly in the ethnic populations. Access to books was limited in these communities, and although he had been working with children’s publishers for seven years, he didn’t feel like enough was being done to reach those children. Accessibility takes many different forms, from pricing points to language and vocabulary to the retail channels and stockists.

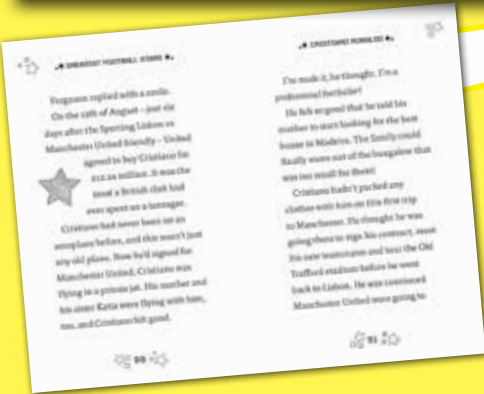

Greatest Football Stars dives into the incredible journeys of the world’s greatest players of all time. Featuring talents from all around the globe, this series covers their unique journeys to stardom – from playing football in the park to performing in front of capacity crowds on the biggest stage and in the biggest leagues.
